

Date: October 2023

Course Name and Number:

Hebrew -Ulpan level 1

06025-01

Type of course: Lecture

Year of Studies: 2023-2024 Semester: Fall credits: 2

Course Goals & Learning Outcomes

This course takes the students from the mechanics of reading and writing Hebrew to active mastery Gradual Vocabulary; knowledge of the present tense verb forms and basic sentence structures; reading and enactment of dialogs relating to everyday life; and reading comprehension of short descriptive, narrative and informative texts.

Course Description, Course Overview

Course Rationale, Topics:

Familiarity of the basics on the written and spoken Hebrew:

- Familiarity of the basics on the written and spoken Hebrew.
- Day to day dialogs – speaking and reading.
- Understanding the basic syntax.
- Establishing a basic vocabulary.

Teaching techniques, technology use:

During the lessons the students will talk, read texts and write. PowerPoint presentations and digital practice will also be used.

Course Structure and Topics:

	Texts:
1	Short dialogs and reading short articles.
	Vocabulary:
2	Personal Pronouns
3	Question words.
4	Names of places.
5	Numbers
6	How to tell the time
7	Colors
8	Days of the week
	Grammar:
9	Familiarity with nouns and adjectives.

10	Prepositions
11	Writing sentences in the present tense.

Prerequisites

Acquaintance with the Hebrew letters: basic writing and reading.
Basic vocabulary

Course Requirements/Assignments

Attendance.
Home work.
Quizzes
Final test

Components of the Course Grade:

70% Final test
30% Quizzes and attendance